

Bedtime Story For the Little Ones

UNCLE WIGGLY AND THE SPOON.

By HOWARD H. GABIN.

THERE came a knock on the door of the hollow stump bungalow where in Woodland, under the shadow of the Orange mountains, Uncle Wiggly and his wife, Mrs. Wiggly, lived with his muskrat lady housekeeper, Nurse Jane, and his little boy, Wiggly.

"Come in!" called the muskrat lady.

"Oh, you shouldn't speak so quickly," said Nurse Jane, who was mending a hole in Uncle Wiggly's rheumatism crutches.

"Why not?" asked the muskrat lady.

"Because it might be the bad skillful, cunning, and wicked little boy, Wiggly," said Nurse Jane.

"All those good-to-bead things are friends of mine now. Come in," he called again, and in came Mr. Sharpnose, the fox gentleman.

"How do you do, Uncle Wiggly?" said Mr. Sharpnose.

NEWS NOTES FROM MOVIELAND

By DAISY DEAN.

WINIFRED WESTOVER, the 17-year-old Triangle Film Arts leading woman who registered a decided hit with Wilfred Lucas in "Jim Hinds," recently celebrated the first anniversary of her entry into the pictures.

Miss Westover is the daughter of Clyde Westover, a well known newspaper and magazine writer of San Francisco and president of the San Francisco Press club. Just about a year ago she left home and high school to seek her fortune as a celluloid celebrity and was fortunate enough to secure an immediate engagement with the Fine Arts company in Los Angeles.

Within a few months Miss Westover became a featured player with De Wolf Hopper, Douglas Fairbanks and Wilfred Lucas. She is a blond of the type that screens exceptionally well, and has shown unusual adaptability to the different parts in which she has been cast, being equally successful as a heroine of the early sixties, as a character comedienne and as a modern social parasite, commonly called a "vamp." In the latter role, Miss Westover is said to be a distinct innovation, all previous home wreckers being a darker and more sinister style of beauty.

Winifred Westover has a prominent part in "Cheerful Givers," the new Beale Love vehicle, now in course of production. It is predicted that she will soon develop into a real box office attraction.

PATRIOTISM.

Ethel Clayton has notified the women's department of the Home Defense League in New York City that she is ready to serve her country at whatever task they desire in the event of the United States requiring the assistance of women should war be declared with any country. "While I am not a suffragist," said Miss Clayton, "I feel that women should do their share when their country needs help, and I for one will sacrifice my screen work if I can be more valuable to my country."

Eddie Peters, one of Balboa's most promising juvenile leads, has won further honors. Last week he became the proud father of a baby girl, Kathleen Clifford, christened with a very handsome bracelet, engraved "Welcome Little Lady," and many other gifts were showered on it. The following day, Papa Peters was cast to play the part of a 12-year-old boy and he "got away with it."

Betty Compton was bewailing the fact that none of her recent parts have called for evening dresses. "How late in the evening do you mean?" asked Eddie Barry, the irrepressible. "Strikes me some of those costumes you wear in 'Hubby's Night Out' might be called the very latest style in the evening."

The General Film company has just closed a contract with the Horkheimer Brothers, whereby the latter will make over a million dollars' worth of pictures to be released by the General in the next year.

--- HOROSCOPE ---

Tuesday, March 20, 1917.

THE stars today are encouraging to human activities, according to astrology. Jupiter rules strongly for good, while Venus, Mercury and Mars are friendly. Uranus is strongly adverse.

It is a time for starting large enterprises and developing those already established.

Southern states come under a rule promising extraordinary expansion in trade with foreign countries.

Commercial prospects have a guidance believed to indicate many surprising conditions in which great losses and great profits are foreseen.

They who are wise will conserve their capital, the seers declare, as all conditions of man and women will have existing demands upon their resources.

There is a sign giving great promise to women who seek humble places in the wage earning competition.

It is a lucky day for weddings, for wearing new clothing and giving valuable presents.

Theaters should profit today. They have a fortunate forecast for next season, when the smaller cities will support them generously.

Decisions of all sorts should be delayed while Uranus is in threatening place. Under today's configuration logic may fail and prejudice rule.

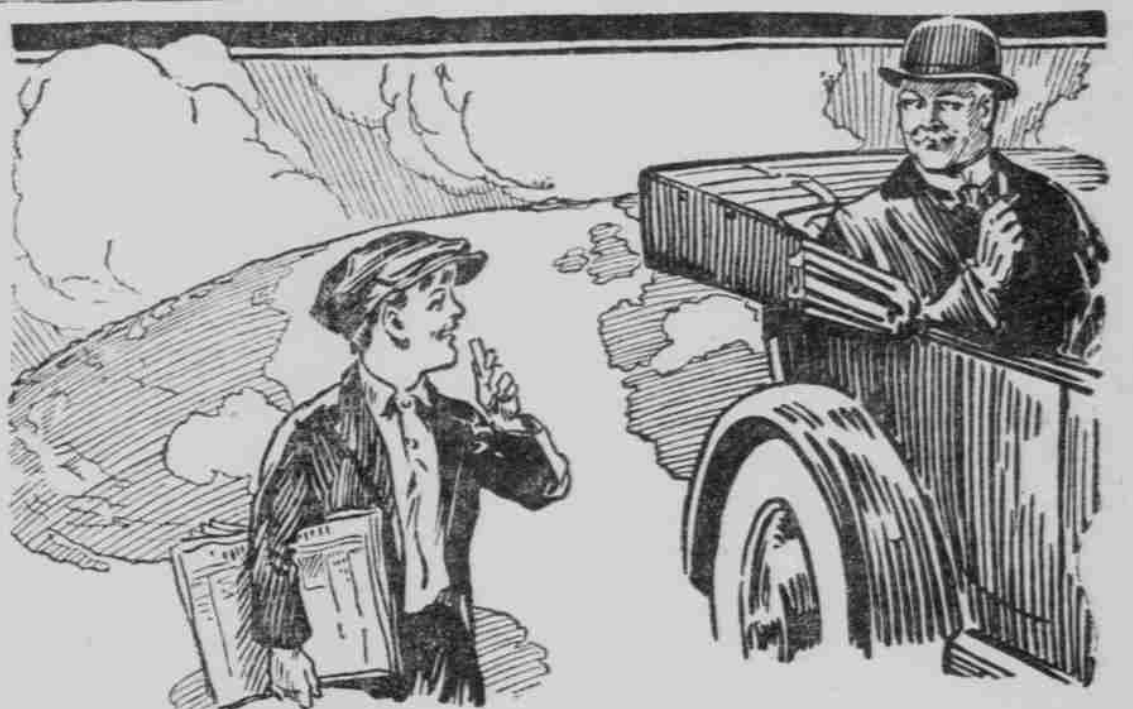

Logic will multiply during the

WRAPPED IN UNITED STATES PATENT OFFICE

14 Years Ago Today

From The Herald of this Date, 1903.

REGARDLESS of the blustering night and the other attractions in the city, quite a large crowd gathered at the Natatorium last evening to hear the good music and speeches, which were the attraction under the auspices of the Young Men's White club. Among the speakers were: J. A. Smith, Harry Norman and president Eugene Elrod.

W. H. Burgess returned today from Austin, Tex.

Postmaster T. B. Olmhausen is back from a hunt. He found no ducks.

District attorney J. R. Harper has returned from Marfa, where the district court is sitting.

Registration continues slow. W. M. Pellicani had only issued 40 certificates up to noon today and Jones had only issued 48.

Judge J. P. Edwards, Capt. T. J. Beall and J. M. Dean returned last night from Marfa, where they have been attending court.

Consular water came down the Rio Grande yesterday afternoon, and as a result, the river was higher than it has been for years.

President Roosevelt will not visit El Paso on his trip west, although he will be as near as Albuquerque. The itinerary of the tour has been announced and El Paso is given the go-by.

The Young Men's Democratic (Morehead) club held its regular meeting last night in the court house, and according to the count made by secretary C. W. Marshall, of the meeting, there were 55 present.

The board of trustees of the Charity union met Tuesday night at the chamber of commerce. There were present: Messrs. W. G. Wall, Horsley, Bobb, Krawner, R. T. Burgess, Henry Moore, J. A. Hastings, H. B. Slater and E. B. Schuster, together with the superintendent, J. M. White. Mr. White reported on a number of cases assisted.

CHIEF SAYS WILL STOP SALE OF FIREARMS TO CHILDREN

Chief of police E. J. Zaborski said Sunday morning that he is going to "clean up" on stores which make a practice of selling firearms to children and especially the ones selling a toy pistol shooting a .22 caliber cartridge.

That such sales are being carried on was again called to the chief's attention Saturday night, when a man came to the station with his six-year-old son and a cheap toy pistol which the boy had bought for 25 cents on South El Paso street, and asked that something be done to stop this kind of sales.

ORRINE DESTROYS LIQUOR HABIT

Keen interest in Orrine, the scientific treatment for the drink habit, now on sale at our store continues unabated.

Yet this is not surprising when it is realized that it can be given secretly at home with absolute confidence and that it quickly destroys all desire for whiskey and other intoxicants. Orrine has saved thousands of drinking men, and is sold under a guarantee to refund the purchase price if, after a trial it fails to benefit.

Orrine is prepared in two forms: No. 1, secret treatment; Orrine No. 2, voluntary treatment. Costs only $1.00 a box. Ask for booklet. Kelly & Pollard, Sheldon Hotel—Adv.

Nervous Periodical Headaches

This trouble commonly called "tick headache" is said to be due to the retention of mucus in the system. Often it is stated that a poor condition of the blood is a cause of these headaches, or that it is a nervous condition, and in certain cases, no doubt, this is true.

Where treatment is demanded, it is more for the pain than anything else, and Dr. A. P. Schellhardt of Louisville, has found anti-kamnia tablets to give prompt and satisfactory relief. "Rest should be insisted upon," he says, "and the patient should go to bed, darken the room and all the attendants and family should be as quiet as possible. An emetic will sometimes shorten the attack. The bowels should be kept open and a hot bath and a thorough rub-down with a coarse towel, after give grateful relief. Two anti-kamnia tablets when the first signs appear, will usually prevent the attack. During an attack, one tablet every hour or two will shorten the attack and restore the usual nervous system. These tablets may be obtained at all druggists. Ask for A. K. Tablets. They are also indicated for nervous headache, neuritis and all pains.—Adv.
